

Hi Mehkeem,

Happy 21st Birthday ♥

Cannot believe your 2 year old brain is so old now (who am I to say I'm literally turning 22 this year) I'm allowed to be old because I AM boring but you are really not entitled to be legally drinking?! without me being able to see you drunk lol.

I miss you so so much and look forward to come to ccc just to be with you mom (and you). I'm so insanely proud of who and how you are - the compassion you have for the things you love, the empathy you have for the people you love and your dark humour which I hate to admit is in fact hilarious. As I sit down to write this, its crazy looking back how much we've along. You've always been a friend I never wanted to lose touch with while at uni and I'm so glad things are exactly the way they were 7 years back when we went to Urbana and took pictures in the dark, as they are now. You have a way of making people special and cared about, please never let anyone take that away from you.

I'm going to have so much FOMO watching you celebrate your birthday in Calcutta w/o me but its been ages since we were together at any one of our birthdays, so let's promise the next time we meet we cut a cake and celebrate all our years so far and take a tequila shot!!
love you Mehke have the best one queen.

- KG.
